

BACKGROUNDER

Ringstar Boxing (Ringstar) is a Singapore-based, sports media and entertainment company founded by CEO Scott Patrick Farrell in 2016 with a vision of becoming Asia-Pacific's No.1 boxing platform by prioritising integrity, legitimacy and exciting fights and developing world champion professional boxers in the region ultimately to be recognised worldwide.

The Ringstar credo of 50/50 competitive matchmaking drew a sold-out show and a global broadcast of 300 million viewers for the last event in Singapore in September 2018. With growing numbers of fans and top talent from Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand, India, New Zealand, Australia, Japan and USA, Ringstar is on track to establishing itself as one of Asia's fastest growing sports entertainment companies.

Currently, Ringstar manages 13 boxers including Muhamad "The Chosen Wan" Ridhwan (11-1, 8 KOs), Paulus "The Rock" Ambunda (27-2, 11 KOs), Michael "Gloves On Fire" Dasmarinas (28-2-1, 19 KOs), Nort "The Assassin from Siam" Beauchamp (17-2, 3 KOs), "The Mean Machine" Keng Fai (5-0-1, 5 KOs) and Efasha "The Face" Kamarudin (2-0, 2 KOs).
